Graduate Program is offered in collaboration with Huxley College of the Environment (Western Washington University) and includes a year-long professional residency at the North Cascades Environmental Learning Center. Graduate students learn, teach, study and work in all aspects of the Institute and its programs. Students also earn certificates in Nonprofit Leadership and Administration and Northwest Natural History adding valuable work skills and experience to their graduate degree.

Adult and Family Programs take place at the Learning Center and throughout the region bringing together interested learners with talented naturalists, scientists, writers and artists to experience and explore the natural and cultural history of the Pacific Northwest. Family groups gather at the learning center to build bonds and create lasting memories through shared adventures on the lake and trails, games, arts and crafts, storytelling and scientific explorations.

Group Programs take place throughout the year at the Learning Center and include conferences, retreats, and special events. Participants work with Institute staff to create an experience that meets the needs of their group. Each group receives guided naturalist opportunities and participates in learning about the importance of locally sourced food through the Institute's foodshed program.

Bookstores provide visitor services through retail sales at six National Park bookstores, along with naturalist activities. The Bookstores offer products that help educate visitors and inspire them to experience, enjoy, interpret, share and remember their experience in the North Cascades. Revenue supports youth education
