In 2008, the Learning Center was awarded LEED® Silver certification by the U.S. Green Building Council for high levels of achievement in sustainability and integration with natural systems.

Conferences and Retreats take place throughout the year at the Learning Center and include trainings and special events. Participants work with Institute staff to tailor learning experiences to meet the needs of their group. Each group receives guided naturalist opportunities and participates in learning about the Institute's foodshed program. The Institute's foodshed program educates the public about the importance of locally sourced food.

Bookstores provide visitor services through retail sales at six National Park bookstores, along with naturalist activities. The Bookstores offer products that help educate visitors and inspire them to experience, enjoy, interpret, share and remember their experience in the North Cascades. Revenue earned from the bookstores support youth education programs.

Skagit Tours are interpretive tours of the Upper Skagit Valley offered by boat, bus, and on foot in partnership with Seattle City Light and North Cascades National Park.

Community and Neighborhood projects involve a broad variety of groups, ages, partnering organizations and program types. Education activities are integrated into all programs to augment the projects and engage the participants. Projects range from invasive plant removal, trail maintenance, seed collection, monitoring/inventories of flora and fauna, and habitat restoration and cleanup. Programs include: literacy, hunger and health care in Concrete, WA (Concrete Summer Learning Adventure) and public lands and positive social interactions in Hispanic neighborhoods in Mount Vernon (Kulshan Creek Neighborhood Youth Program).

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

The Institute's Board of Directors conducts an annual review of the Executive Director's performance. The Board uses Survey Monkey to survey members of the Institute's Leadership Team and, separately, members of the Board. Questions are based on the duties described in the Executive Director's job description. Every two to three years, the Board also seeks feedback from the Institute's key partners and stakeholders. The Executive Director completes a self-evaluation. Before setting compensation for the Executive Director, the Board Chair presents to the full Board results of these evaluations and information on changes in compensation for members of the Leadership Team as well as current information on compensation for executive directors of nonprofit organizations in Washington State and, when available, compensation of executive directors at peer organizations across the United States. The Board Chair makes a recommendation on compensation. The Board discusses the recommendation and votes on the recommended (or a different) amount.
